NEWSLETTER w/c 4th March 2019

THATCHAM

Our nursery theme this week was: Transport
Our nursery theme next week is: Under the Sea

beenyies enjoyed drawing different transport vehicles on large paper, we drew a road and they put cars and lorries on to play with.

toddlers enjoyed singing transport songs, their favourite was wheels on the bus...

elmer gets lost

Matthew dressed up as Elmer on world book day and we almost lost him in the ball pit!

pre-school made their own aeroplanes out of pegs and lolly sticks, and talked about the different places they can get to by plane.

We also used junk modelling and boxes to create our own vehicles and role play games.

This week we have been celebrating world book day, in particular the children have really enjoyed stick man by Julia Donaldson. They have been reciting the words "I'm stickman, I'm stickman, I'm stickman that's me".

- ❖ We encourage and celebrate good behaviour at nursery with reward charts and certificates, please ask the staff to give you a copy if you would like to use them at home.
- ❖ Friday 15th March – RED NOSE DAY – we are having a pyjama party day, children can come to nursery in their pjs and celebrate with dancing and other fun activities.
